NOTE.—Of these Parishes, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted by the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13th, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

2. Receiving the Certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of Members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex-officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected, by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M., and when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled, to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and as soon as practicable, to canvass the same and report the results thereof to the Convention. If on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit it—or to amend it : which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word “Resolved” shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made : no after amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the minutes.

XXI. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.

The Secretary announced that in calling the roll he had omitted the names of the Lay Delegates of St. George's Church, Newburgh, because the Certificate which they presented was defective, it having been signed by a Warden, instead of the Rector, as the Canon requires.

The Certificate was referred to the Committee on the Credentials of Lay Delegates.

On motion of Mr. S. P. Nash, the Committee on Canons was requested to examine and report as to the propriety of amending Subdivision (III.) of Sec. 2, of Canon II.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Richey, the Report of the Special Committee on the Enlargement of the Usefulness of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund was made the Order of the Day for Thursday, immediately after the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

The Rev. Dr. Richey offered the following Resolutions, which were ordered to be printed, and were made the Order of the Day for Thursday, at two o'clock :

Resolved, That this Convention does not favor the adoption, by the General Convention of 1886, of the alterations and additions, as set forth in the Book Annexed, as modified by the General Convention of 1883.

Resolved, That the General Convention be asked to take such measures as, in its judgment, may be thought most desirable to secure, without further delay, greater flexibility in the use of the Offices of the Book of Common Prayer.

Resolved, That it is expedient to set forth, for general use, under proper authority, such Occasional Offices for Missionary and other purposes as are not now provided for in the recognized formularies of the Church in the United States of America.

Resolved, That the General Convention be requested to consider the expediency of appointing a Commission to confer with the Convocations of Canterbury and York, and with the Episcopate of the Church of Scotland, relative to securing uniformity in any ritual changes which shall be deemed desirable in the uses of the Churches of the Anglican Communion.

On behalf of the Rev. Wm. H. Cooke, who was unable to be present, the Rev. Dr. Swope offered the following Preamble and Resolutions concerning "Extraordinary" Services :

Whereas :—1. According to Sec. I., Can. 22, Tit. I., of the Digest of Canons for the government of the P. E. Church in the U. S. A. : "Every minister shall, before all sermons and lectures, and on all other occasions of public worship, use the Book of Common Prayer, as the same is or may be established by the authority of the General Convention of this Church ; and in performing such service, no other prayers shall be used than those prescribed by the said book ;" and

Whereas :—2. In Sec. I., Can. 23, Tit. I., similar provision is made in reference to the Hymns and Anthems which may be sung ; and

Whereas :—3. There seems to be a growing feeling among many of the Clergy and Laity, that the exigencies of modern spiritual life and work in the Church require some exceptional methods, and a greater flexibility in the order of occasional services ; and

Whereas :—4. The essential difference between corporate acts of devotion and public worship, and such more personal offices, as pertain to the expression of the aspirations and necessities of the individual soul, seems to be fully recognized in Sec. XIV., Can. 15, Tit. I., wherein it is ordered, that “The Bishop of each Diocese may compose forms of prayer or thanksgiving, as the case may require, for extraordinary occasions, and transmit them to each clergyman within his Diocese, whose duty it shall be to use such forms in the Church, on such occasions.” THEREFORE,

Be it Resolved :—1. That any Minister of a congregation in this Diocese, desiring to hold any occasional service or services, provision for the order of which is not plainly “set forth” in the Book of Common Prayer, must receive from the Ordinary of the Diocese, a written permission to that effect, together with an approval of the substance and form of such contemplated service, and also the Hymns or Anthems which may be used.

Resolved :—2. That the Assistant Bishop of this Diocese be requested to issue, at his earliest convenience, such recommendations and forms for special and mission services, as may establish a definite guide, within the limits of which such occasional offices may be said.

The Preamble and Resolutions were referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. T. R. Harris proposed the following Canon as a substitute for that printed on page 67 of the Journal for 1885, which was referred to the Committee on Canons :

Canon —.

OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW PLACES OF PUBLIC WORSHIP.

In towns where the Church is already established, no new parish shall be formed, or new Church or chapel be established, or new congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, chapel, or congregation be changed, without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, and until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

In towns where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new parish.

The Committee on the Credentials of Lay Delegates made the following

Report :

That they have examined the Credentials of the Lay Delegates, and find that the roll prepared by the Secretary is correct.

They offer the following Resolution :

Resolved, That the certificate of the Lay Delegates of St. George's Church, Newburgh, although it is invalid, be received, and that the delegates be admitted to seats in this Convention.

C. E. SWOPE,
WM. H. MILLS,
E. H. C. GOODWIN.

NEW YORK, September 29, 1886.

The Resolution offered by the Committee was adopted, and the names of the Lay Delegates of St. George's Parish, Newburgh, were called by the Secretary.

The Report of the Committee appointed to confer with Committees of other Dioceses in this State was read by Rev. Dr. Eaton :

The Committee appointed by this Convention to confer with like Committees of other Dioceses in the State concerning the Act for the Incorporation of Churches (see Journals of 1884, p. 58, and of 1885, p. 81), respectfully report that a Committee of Conference, composed of the Committees appointed for said purpose by the several Diocesan Conventions of the Church in this State, assembled in the vestry room of St. Thomas' Church, in this city, on the 11th day of May, 1886, and that at said meeting the report was adopted, which, in obedience to the resolution appended thereto, your Committee herewith present to this Convention for its consideration.

The said clerk shall attend all subsequent elections with the said register certified by his own signature and that of the Rector or Wardens, in order to test the qualifications of such electors in case the same should be questioned, and the fact that the name of any person claiming to vote does not appear upon the register shall be presumptive evidence against his right to vote.

§ 4. No person shall be eligible for office as Warden or Vestryman who is not a male person of full age and baptized.

§ 5. Notice shall be given of such election, by the Rector if there be one, or if there be none or he shall be absent, by the officiating Minister or Church Warden for two Sundays next previous to the day so fixed, in the time of Divine Service, and if for any reason the Church be not open for Divine Service the notice may be given by posting it conspicuously on the same two Sundays.

§ 8. The stated annual election shall be holden immediately after morning service, and at such elections the Rector, or, if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Church Wardens, selected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Warden be present, a Vestryman, selected in like manner, shall preside and receive the votes of the electors, and be the returning officer; and shall enter the proceedings in the book of the Minutes of the Vestry, and sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many electors present as he shall think fit, to be by them also signed and certified.

§ 9. The said Church Wardens and Vestrymen shall immediately after their election be divided by lot into two classes, numbered one and two, and seats of the members of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the first year, and those of the members of the second class at the end of the second year. At all subsequent annual elections one Church Warden, and the number of Vestrymen so determined shall be elected. The notice required by law to be given for the election of the Church Wardens and Vestrymen shall specify the names of the persons whose terms shall expire and whose places are to be filled at such election. The Church Wardens and Vestrymen chosen at any of the said elections, shall hold their offices until the expiration of the term for which they shall be chosen, and until others are chosen in their stead; and shall have power, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church, to elect a Rector to such Church or Congregation as often as there shall be a vacancy therein, and to fix his salary or compensation.

§ 10. No Board, or meeting of such Vestry, shall be held unless at least three days' notice thereof shall be given in writing, under the hand of the Rector or of one of the Church Wardens; except that for the first meeting after an election, twenty-four hours' notice shall be sufficient; and no such Board shall be competent to transact any business unless the Rector, if there be one, and at least one of the Church Wardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen be present. But if the Rector be absent from the State, and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting has been called by the Rector, and he be absent therefrom, the Board shall be competent to transact all business, if there be present one Church Warden and a majority of the Vestrymen ; except that in the absence of the Rector no measure shall be taken for effecting a sale or disposition of the real property, nor may any sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal estate of such corporation be made, nor any act done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

§ 11. The Rector, if there be one, and if not, then the Church Warden present, or if both the Church Wardens be present, then the Church Warden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of votes, shall preside at every meeting of the Board, and have the casting vote.

§ 12. Whenever any corporation, organized under the provision of this Act, shall deem it for the interest of such corporation to change the number of its Vestrymen, it shall and may be lawful for such corporation to change the same, provided that the number of such Vestrymen shall not thereby be made less than four nor more than eight. And in order to effect such change, the same shall be authorized and approved by the Vestry at a regular meeting thereof ; and shall then at the next stated annual election for Wardens and Vestrymen be submitted to, and ratified by a majority of the votes of all the qualified voters voting at such election ; notice of which proposed change, and that the same will be submitted for ratification at such election, shall be given at the same time, and in the same manner as is required for notice of the said election ; if such change be thus ratified, a certificate shall be made setting forth the resolution of the Vestry, and the proceedings to ratify the same, together with the fact of the notice being given as required, and shall be acknowledged or proved and recorded in the same manner as is required for the original certificate of organization ; and thereupon the number of Vestrymen to constitute a part of the Vestry of such corporation shall be such as shall be fixed by the proceedings to effect such change. But such change shall not take effect or be operative, until the certificate above mentioned shall have been duly recorded.

§ 13. Any Church or corporation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in this State, heretofore incorporated by any special charter now in force, may adopt the provisions of this act as to the time for holding its annual elections, as to a classification of its Church Wardens and Vestrymen, and as to the keeping of a Register to test the qualifications of voters, provided the Vestry of such Church shall, by vote at a regular meeting, determine to adopt the same, and such vote shall, at the next ensuing stated annual election for Wardens and Vestrymen, be submitted to and ratified by a majority of the qualified voters, and certified and recorded in the manner provided by Section 2 of the Act hereby amended.

§ 14. All Acts, and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the several Committees composing this Committee be, and they are hereby, requested to report the action here taken to their respective Conventions for consideration

Corresponding Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Canedy, the Report was ordered to be printed, and was made the Order of the Day for Thursday, at three o'clock.

The Special Committee on Diocesan Missions offered a proposed Canon—"Of the Diocesan Missionary Society"—which was made the Order of the Day for Thursday, immediately after the Assistant Bishop's Address.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK FOR THE YEAR END-ING SEPTEMBER 25TH, 1886.

Since the last Report, the complicated negotiations in regard to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood, have been completed, and the property and endowment funds have been turned over to the Trustees. The property consists of a plot of ground, a part occupied as a cemetery.

The Church building of stone has lately been completely repaired and refurnished, and the whole property is free from debt and in good order. There are two endowment funds held for the support of this Church and its Rector, amounting to $9,206.82. The income of $5,000.00 of this amount is to be applied to the support of the Rector, and the income of $4,206.82 is to be applied to the general support of the Church work.

The Treasurer's Report shows that those funds are invested as follows:

On bond and mortgage, at 5 per cent. interest.....	$4,000 00
On deposit in Union Trust Company, at 2 per cent. interest for a part of the time, but now drawing 3 per cent.....	5,206 82

The Trustees still hold the properties mentioned in their last report, to wit: the Church at Rosendale, Ulster County; the Church building and property occupied by the parish of the Beloved Disciple on Eighty-ninth Street, near Madison Avenue, in the city of New York, and the Church property at Cru-gers, Westchester County, used by the parish of the Divine Love

The terms of office of two of the Trustees, Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., and Rev. Thomas M. Peters, D.D., will expire on the first of October, 1886, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Trustees would respectfully request authority to print the papers relating to their incorporation, together with their by-laws and list of officers.

Many applications are made for information contained in the various papers, which cannot conveniently be given unless they are printed, and the Trustees would therefore request that the Convention will authorize payment by the Treasurer of the Diocesan Fund, of the expense for this printing, there being no fund in the hands of the Trustees applicable to the payment of such charges.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated NEW YORK, September 25th, 1886.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

On motion of the Secretary, the following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocesan Fund be authorized to pay for the printing of the papers relating to the incorporation of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention, and of their by-laws and lists of officers. Such payments to be made upon the certificate of the Secretary of said Trustees, of the expense incurred in such printing.

By unanimous vote the ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. MORGAN DIX, D.D., and the Rev. THOMAS M. PETERS, D.D., were elected Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention, to serve until October, 1890.

The Rev. Dr. Seabury presented and read the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund :

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Diocese of New York, beg leave to present the following Report :

To the Report of their Treasurer, hereto annexed, they refer for a statement of the income received during the past year, and of the disposition which has been made of it, and also of the amount of principal at present held in trust by them for the purposes of their organization, and of the several investments by which that principal is secured. It appears from this report of the Treasurer that the total amount of the fund held by the Trustees is $61,587.16, of which $57,800 are invested in bond and mortgage, and the remainder, awaiting investment, is deposited in responsible savings banks and trust companies. It also appears that the amount distributed during the past year to beneficiaries has been upwards of $2,500.

The Trustees are happy in being able to report this year a larger amount distributed, and a larger number of their clerical brethren assisted in their struggle to live on insufficient incomes, than has heretofore been possible. They sincerely regret that the funds which the Church in the Diocese has thus far placed in their hands have not allowed them further to extend a bounty, which in many cases is much needed. When it is considered that the greater number of the cases in which relief has now been extended are those of clergymen whose respective salaries are less than $500 per annum, it will hardly be doubted that this relief has been well bestowed; and when it is considered that there are many other clergy in the Diocese whose salaries, even if somewhat more than $500, are yet so disproportioned to the cost of the most economical living, as to cause them great privations and anxieties in the discharge of their duties, it can hardly be wondered that the Trustees should desire an increase in gifts bestowed upon the Parochial Fund, which could bear a fruit more worthy of the noble design of its foundation.

The Trustees are persuaded that if their brethren of the clergy and laity understood the needs and deserts of this institution, it would receive more attention at their hands than it has hitherto done. They therefore beg to remind them that the Trustees of this corporation are chosen by the vote of this Convention, and are bound by their charter to report directly to it; so that funds intrusted to this Corporation may be justly considered as a part of the trust and responsibility of the Diocese itself; and that under their charter the Trustees are able to afford the opportunity to all who may desire to better the condition of the clergy, to do so by giving funds either in general trust for the increase of clerical incomes according to the discretion of the Trustees, or in special trust for the benefit of designated parishes. They would also remind their brethren that by resolution of this Convention in 1880, it was recommended that an annual collection for the Parochial Fund should be made in every congregation of the diocese; and they would impress upon such individuals as may have the desire and the means to do something for the endowment of particular parishes in which they may be interested, that by intrusting their bounty to this Corporation, they will secure to the parish for which they seek to provide, the benefit of a regular income in perpetuity, without such risks as are notoriously attendant upon a gift directly to the parish itself. They earnestly desire that these considerations may be borne in mind, by their brethren, and hope that the year will not pass without some recognition of the value of their work in the way of addition to their funds both by offerings from parishes and by specific donations or bequests on the part of individuals. The Treasurer of this fund is Mr. Wm. Alexander Smith, of 58 Wall Street, N. Y.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

President.

Dated NEW YORK, Sept. 27th, 1886.

By unanimous vote the ballot was suspended, and Messrs. CHARLES G. LANDON and GEORGE R. SCHIEFFELIN were elected Trustees of the Parochial Fund, to serve until October, 1888.

The Report of Committee on Historical Publications was presented and read by Gen. James Grant Wilson :

The Committee on Historical Publications, appointed for the purpose of preparing and publishing an account of the Proceedings of the Centenary Celebration of the Diocese, together with such other historical matter as might be deemed appropriate, have the honor to report that a handsome octavo volume of 464 pages, was edited by a member of the Committee, and issued by the Appletons in June last. The work contains the Centennial Proceedings of September, 1885, in Trinity and St. Thomas' Churches ; sketches and portraits of the seven Bishops of the Diocese ; notices of all the parishes in the Diocese ; also of the various Institutions of Charity and Learning, and a chapter on the Diocesan Church Literature of the past century—1785-1885.

The Committee desire to express their thanks to Bishops Coxe and Doane, and also to the Rev. Drs. De Costa, Seabury, Smith, and Spencer, for valuable contributions. To the late Mr. Benjamin Moore, who kindly supplied the fine steel engraving of his grandfather, Bishop Moore, used in the Centennial History, and to Miss Potter, who procured for the same purpose the admirable portrait of her father, the venerable Bishop of the Diocese, the Committee also wish to express their grateful acknowledgments.

Owing to the surprising apathy and neglect of a large portion of the clergy to forward reports from their parishes, although repeatedly requested to do so by the Committee, the volume was not published until the summer, which has, of course, delayed its sale. It is, however, believed that the balance of the edition of one thousand copies will be disposed of before the meeting of another annual Convention, and also that its value will soon be enhanced and its price increased, as the work is not stereotyped and no more can be printed. Should this expectation be realized, the centennial volume will not cost the Diocese a single dollar. It would seem to your Committee that every member of this Convention should desire to possess a copy of the work, which can be obtained of the publishers, D. Appleton & Co., or by gentlemen giving their names to the Secretary of the Convention.

The total expense of the Centennial History, of which 500 copies have been bound in cloth and are sold at $4, and 50 copies in half calf, price $7, was $2,014.46. From this amount must be deducted the sum of $250, the generous gift of a member of the Committee. The net proceeds of the copies already sold amount to $296.10. Thirty-seven copies of the book were presented to contributors and editors, and $30.92 spent in advertising in the Churchman and other journals, which sum is included in the cost of the work as above mentioned.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Huntington, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be conveyed to the Committee intrusted with the publication of the documents relating to the Centenary of the Diocese, and especially to the Secretary of the Committee, Gen. James Grant Wilson, for the admirable manner in which the work of the Committee has been carried to completion.

On motion of the Rev. E. Spruille Burford, it was Resolved, That the Convention of New York, on the first day of its meeting, desires to express its sympathy with its stricken sister Diocese of South Carolina, and especially with the Bishop of the Diocese and the Clergy and Church people of Charleston, and asks for them the generous aid of Churchmen in the Diocese of New York.

The Secretary was requested to telegraph the foregoing resolution to the Bishop of South Carolina.

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The undersigned begs to report to the Convention, in behalf of the Trustees of St. Stephen's College, that at the last commencement 12 young men graduated, of whom 10 have already entered on the study of theology. The new academic year has just opened with 72 students, 65 of whom are studying with the purpose of applying for Holy Orders.

It is again necessary to report that we are not able to receive all who have applied, on account of the want of room and the want of scholarships.

I am happy to add that, as far as regards the number and the character of the young men, and our ability to perform the work which the Church requires of us, the College was never in a more prosperous condition.

The only drawback is the want of means promptly to meet our obligations. Respectfully submitted.

Warden, &c., &c.

Report

OF THE SECRETARY OF THE CONVENTION.

The Secretary of the Convention respectfully reports that he has complied with the instructions of the last Convention :

1. To transmit to the Bishop of the Diocese a certified copy of the Resolutions offered by the Rev. Dr. Dix, in reply to an oral communication from the Bishop, declining, for the future, to receive a salary from this Convention.

2. To notify the Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the General Theological Seminary of the election of Trustees of the Seminary for this Diocese, and the term for which they were chosen.

3. To notify the Secretaries of the several Diocesan Conventions of this State, of the appointment of a Committee to confer and act conjointly with like Committees of the other Dioceses, concerning the amendment of the Act for the Incorporation of Religious Societies.

4. To publish two thousand copies of the Journal, and fifteen hundred copies of the Assistant Bishop's Address.

The Diocesan Library is now located in one of the upper rooms of the new Library Building of the General Theological Seminary, which the Trustees of the Seminary have kindly offered to the Convention for the reception of its archives. In its former location, in a room used for other purposes, it was impossible for the Secretary to have that supervision of it which is essential to its preservation, and several of the bound volumes of the Journals of this Convention are missing. Indeed there is not a complete set of the Journals in the Library. One volume, containing the Journals of 1819-1830, has been borrowed and has not been returned. The Secretary has one complete set of the Journals in his office.

The Secretary assumed the responsibility of making necessary changes in the room, and the expense, which amounted to $71.64, was paid by the Treasurer of the Convention, who has the proper vouchers in his possession. The Secretary asks the Convention to ratify his action and to appropriate the amount from the Diocesan Fund.

It is customary, once in three years, to bind the Journals of this and other Diocesan Conventions into volumes, for their proper preservation and convenient use. It is suggested to the Convention that order be given for this work to be done.

FRANCIS LOBDELL, Secretary.

NEW YORK, September 29th, 1886.

On motion of the Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, it was Resolved, That this Convention approves of the action of the Secretary in preparing the room appropriated by the Trustees of the General Seminary for the reception of the Diocesan Library, and the payment of the expense of the same by the Treasurer of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Convention be authorized to take order for binding the Journals belonging to this Convention, which have accumulated since the last appropriation made for the purpose ; and that the expense be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention out of the Diocesan Fund.

The Convention adjourned until nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1886.

9 O'CLOCK A. M.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. E. H. Krans, an Assistant Minister of St. Ann's Church, New York, assisted by the Rev. Wm. B. Hooper, an Assistant Minister of Trinity Parish, New York.

The Right Reverend the Assistant Bishop of the Diocese took the Chair.

The Minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

Several Clergymen and Lay Delegates not present yesterday appeared and took their seats.

The Assistant Bishop then delivered his

Report

OF THE "NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY."

The Executive Committee of the "New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society" respectfully Report that, with the blessing of God and the material aid furnished by their brethren of the Clergy and Laity, they have been enabled to conduct the affairs of the Society to most cheering and satisfactory results. Never, indeed, has there been such occasion for gladness and joy as at the close of this 55th anniversary of its organization. Every department of the work has been so wisely and faithfully administered that not only has no ground been lost, but all has been retained and a substantial advance made.

Heretofore, it has been working as an independent Society, but the last year it has been, in a measure, the Church acting through the Assistant Bishop, and your Committee now feel that the time is come when the Society should become, literally, the Church acting through the Assistant Bishop, directed by the Church represented in this Convention, and responsible to this Convention. They feel, more than ever, that a great City Mission is properly the work of the Church. The machinery of a Society may be needful in connection with it, but the Church itself must form the foundation.

The wise suggestions of the Assistant Bishop, contained in his address in 1885, have been duly considered, and your Committee have taken definite action towards carrying them out. A Clergy House has been secured and fitted up as a center of Missionary operations. A reorganization of the working plans of the Society has been adopted, which, it is believed, will very largely increase its scope and influence, and your Committee feel that the whole Diocese is interested, and deeply so, in the Mission Work of our Church in this city.

The contrast between the standing of the Society fifteen years ago, when it was heavily burdened with debt, and handicapped in many respects, and its present position of absolute freedom from debt—of greatly increased facilities for work—and especially as being the only Protestant Christian body officially empowered by the “Hon. Commissioners of Charities and Corrections” to minister to the spiritual wants of the inmates of the Public Institutions under their care—this contrast, your Committee think, should commend this work to the mind and heart of the whole Church in this Diocese.

It is true that City Missions is not what most persons would call an exciting topic, and yet, perhaps, there is no subject which, for the present, has taken such hold upon the minds of many earnest Churchmen, and which, for the future, has in it such a store of either good or evil. It is not too much to say that our character, nay, our very existence, as a Church, seems wrapt up in it, and that the course of action adopted will show whether, as a Church, we really care for or neglect the poor in the city, or the large class of criminals and unfortunates found in the Public Institutions.

Much has been done, but this much only shows how wide is the field as yet untouched.

God, in His good Providence, has come to the help of the Society in a most unexpected manner, by putting it into the minds of the Honorable Commissioners to appoint two Christian men as Wardens—one at the Work House and the other at the Penitentiary on Blackwell’s Island—and also to give them, at each place, a most efficient Christian woman as Matron. These all believe in and work for thorough individual reformation of heart and life. The result is already marked. The fact that our Missionaries have their personal and official influence and co-operation, gives a new character to their efforts. The inmates find themselves breathing a new and wholesome atmosphere, filled with thoughts and suggestions of repentance and Christian living. It is easy to understand that this prepares the way for the ministrations of a faithful Missionary, by whom, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, the erring may be reclaimed and the “lost” saved.

The reorganization of the Society contemplates and provides for much more extended operations than heretofore, both in the city and on the adjacent Islands, and of course for a much larger force of workers. But your Committee are fully persuaded that, if sustained by their brethren, the results will fill all hearts with thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God.

The several Departments remain nearly the same as at the last Report. Two changes have taken place, viz.: Rev. J. H. Ranger resigned St. Barnabas' Chapel to become Rector of a parish at Bay Ridge, and Rev. Mr. Anketell has succeeded Rev. Mr. Willing at Bellevue Hospital.

At St. Barnabas' House 1,663 persons were received and cared for; 9,094 lodgings and 54,238 meals were furnished during the year; an average of 34 children were present daily in the Day Nursery, and an aggregate of 604 families and 7,650 persons were visited by the Sisters. The usual services in the Chapel were regularly held; the Sewing School, the Employment Society, the Mother's Meetings, the Girls' Friendly Society, and the Free Reading Room, were abundantly useful.

The Charity Organization Society, as heretofore and always, has been of incalculable benefit in dealing with the applications for assistance of every kind, by investigations and prompt information in regard to unworthy objects.

The statistics of the work done the last year are found in the following

In conclusion, your committee adopt the nervous language of another as their own: "These are startling times, and the Bride of Christ needs to be awake. In the Mission Work of our great and, I might almost say, fearful city, a broad, deep, and expensive effort is needed. What was said of the English nation might well be applied to our Church: 'She cannot engage in a little war.' With all her claims, her wealth, and her prominence, it is impossible that the Episcopal Church of the Diocese and city of New York should carry on a little City Mission—a little war against the vast host which Satan is daily training within our midst in the dextrous use of his own deadly weapons, is impossible for us. Our wealthy communicants—all sworn servants of the Cross of self-denial—and our wealthy parishes, must all come forward to the work. One extra tithe from every Churchman in the Diocese would do it all."

Therefore, whatsoever our hands find to do, let us do it with our might.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Executive Committee.

CURTIS T. WOODRUFF,

Superintendent of the "New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society."

NEW YORK, September 30th, 1886.

The Rev. Dr. Donald presented and read the

Report

OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

The Missionary Committee is glad to report that the cause of Diocesan Missions during the past year has met with an awakened interest on the part of both the clergy and the laity; and that the future holds out the prospect of its taking the place which it so justly and properly deserves.

The generous and cordial response to the appeal of the Assistant Bishop has enabled the Treasurer to pay promptly all the stipends due to the Missionaries ; and he has now the means on hand of meeting those due in October—a most unusual and gratifying condition of the treasury.

During the past year, by the kind contribution of $500 by one of the Clergy of the Diocese, the Bishop has been enabled to inaugurate the system of Itinerant Missionaries, and one missionary has already been employed with encouraging results in the counties of Sullivan, Ulster and Orange.

The proposed change in the method of administering the Missionary Work of the Diocese has the heartiest indorsement of the Committee, and if carried out, the transfer of the invested funds in the Committee's hands will be made without delay.

By order of the Committee,
E. W. DONALD,
Secretary.

Mr. Thomas P. Cummings presented and read the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the Episcopal Fund in their hands is $115,405.08, having been increased during the past year by contributions from various parishes amounting to $467.14, and by a bequest from Tracy R. Edson, Esq., of $1,000.

Seventy-nine thousand five hundred dollars is now invested upon bond and mortgage upon approved city property. $1,000 is in a U. S. 4 per cent. bond, registered, and $34,905.08 is on deposit with the United States Trust Co., at 2 per cent.

During the month of October, 1885, the Trustees received from the Bishop of the Diocese, the following communication :

" To the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York :

" Although the Convention of the Diocese, at its session just closed, has again, with an affectionate generosity, for which I am deeply grateful, declined to accept the surrender by me of the salary hitherto paid to me, I must still act upon my own views of duty, and accomplish my purpose in another way. Accordingly, I hereby transfer to you, to be applied to the support of the Assistant Bishop, all the income from the investment of the Episcopal Fund, accrued or to accrue, less the sums payable for the taxes, insurance, and repairs of the Episcopal residence ; and also all other moneys under your control, already received or hereafter to be received, which would, but for this instrument, be applicable to my salary, such funds to be paid by you either directly to the Assistant Bishop or to any Committee or officer charged by the Convention with the duty of providing for his salary, as may be most expedient, and with the same effect, as a discharge to you, as though they had been first paid to me and by me paid over.

" And to the end that no assessments need further to be made in order to make up the salary heretofore enjoyed by me, I hereby relinquish all claim, legal or equitable, to such salary, and release the Diocese from all obligation in respect to the same, leaving to you, however, full authority to take all such proper measures, as you may be authorized by the Convention to take, to provide for the salary of the Assistant Bishop. And these presents shall be your sufficient legal warrant and authority for all acts done by you in accordance with their tenor.

" Given under my hand and seal this fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(Signed),

" HORATIO POTTER,

" Bishop of New York (L. S.)."

" In presence of

" ELIHU CHAUNCEY."

On motion of the Right Rev. the Assistant Bishop, the Rules of Order were suspended, and he offered the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That, in losing from the membership of the Standing Committee, to which he has declined a re-election, the Hon. Resolved, That in consenting, at his own request and in view of the present infirm condition of his health, to release their distinguished associate from further service in the Standing Committee, the members of this Convention desire to place upon record their grateful sense of his very able and long-continued services, and their hearty indebtedness for wise counsels, untiring watchfulness, and distinguished courtesy in all the relations which he has sustained to this body and to the Church in this Diocese.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to communicate these Resolutions to Mr. Fish, with the assurances of the affectionate respects of his associates in this Convention, and of their earnest prayers for his entire restoration to health.

With regard to the legacy received during the past year from the estate of Sarah Burr, the Trustees report as follows :—

This legacy was given by Miss Sarah Burr to this Corporation, by a will executed April 3d, 1866, prior to the separation of the Dioceses of Long Island and Albany from the former Diocese of New York. At the time of said separation an apportionment was made of the funds in the Treasury of this Corporation, by which they were divided among the three new Dioceses. (See Report of Committee on Apportionment of Funds, Journal of Convention, 1869, p. 59.)

It is undoubted that the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund of this Diocese are legally entitled to retain the whole of this legacy. The Trustees recognize, however, that the will giving the legacy was executed prior to the division of the Diocese, and that it must therefore be presumed that the testatrix intended and expected that the benefit of her gift should extend throughout the whole of the old Diocese. The Trustees consider that they are equitably bound to carry out as far as possible the intentions of the testatrix. It has, therefore, seemed proper to them to recommend that this legacy should be apportioned among the three Dioceses of Albany, Long Island and New York, and that the apportionment should be calculated upon the basis of the prior apportionment of the funds of this Corporation, as directed by the Convention of 1869.

The amount received from this legacy.....	$11,475 00

And adding the interest actually earned up to Octo- ber 1st, 1886.....	203 00

Is.....	$11,377 50
And upon the basis of the former apportionment, there would be payable out of this :
To the Diocese of Long Island.....	$3,119 70
To the Diocese of Albany	2,079 80
The Diocese of New York retaining....	6,178 00

	$11,377 50

The Trustees therefore recommend the adoption of the following Resolutions :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of this Diocese be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to pay to the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island, the sum of $3,119.70, being the proportion of the legacy received from the estate of Sarah Burr, to which the said Trustees of the Diocese of Long Island are equitably entitled.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of this Diocese be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to pay to the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Albany, the sum of $2,079.80, being the proportion of the legacy received from the estate of Sarah Burr, to which the said Trustees of the Diocese of Albany are equitably entitled.

Respectfully submitted.

NEW YORK, September 27, 1886.

The Resolutions recommended by the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund were adopted.

The Convention proceeded to the consideration of the Order of the Day, being the

Report

OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON ENLARGING THE USEFULNESS OF THE FUND FOR AGED AND INFIRM CLERGYMEN.

The Special Committee appointed to consider how to increase the usefulness of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, respectfully reports to the Convention as follows:

The Committee has considered that the adoption of the recommendations in its report submitted to the last Convention, was an approval of the plans thereby presented, and during the past year has had under discussion how best to put those plans into operation.

The Committee assumed, also, that the last Convention had decided, by adopting the Committee's report, that the new plans should be carried out by the Trustees of the present Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and it therefore proceeded to obtain such changes in the charter of the existing corporation as would enable it to hold the two other funds to be placed in its hands. A bill was prepared and submitted to counsel, who recommended that, in view of the enlarged scope of the corporation, the number of the Trustees should be increased to five.

The bill, with this amendment, was introduced into both the Senate and Assembly, but too late to be passed at the last session of the Legislature.

A copy of this bill, with a few necessary changes, is annexed to this report (Schedule A). It will be introduced again early in the next session.

The new plans involve the establishment of two separate funds in addition to that at present in hand, one for widows and children of deceased clergymen, and one for use in facilitating life insurance among the clergy.

In discussing how to provide funds for the new plans, it was the unanimous opinion of the Committee that the funds applicable to assist Aged and Infirm Clergymen at present on hand, together with legacies to fall in hereafter, were amply sufficient for all needs in the present and immediate future. The Committee, therefore, recommends that the collection on Thanksgiving Day, called for by Canon XVI., be no longer appropriated for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, but that, until further action of the Convention, and in the absence of special designation, it be divided equally between the fund for widows and children of clergymen and the fund for facilitating life insurance.

Also, that all undesignated legacies given to the Corporation by wills executed after this date be equally divided among the three funds.

Also, that all proper publicity be given to the increased scope of the corporation, and that the public be invited to increase these two funds by donations and legacies.

In order to give proper publicity to the change, the Committee resolved to ask of the Convention permission to print separately copies of this and the preceding reports, and to distribute them through the Diocese.

The Committee has drawn up and presents herewith rules for the governance of the Trustees in the management of both of the new funds (Schedule B).

It is understood that, in the absence of any practical experience of the working of these rules, they cannot amount to more than suggestions for the carrying out of the new plans, and the Committee therefore recommends that discretion be given to the Trustees, and that they be permitted, under the supervision of the Convention, to alter or suspend them during the next few years, and until experience shall enable them to frame rules which may be made binding by the Convention.

With regard to the plan for facilitating life insurance, set forth by these rules, the Committee states that after further consideration of the plan contained in its report to the last Convention, it has deemed it impracticable to provide for any payment by a parish in furtherance of this scheme, and that portion of the plan has, therefore, been dropped.

The Committee also presents herewith a proposed new canon, to be adopted in place of the present canon relating to the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund (Schedule C), which should not go into effect until the charter of the existing corporation has been properly amended.

It also presents the following resolutions, to be passed by the Convention, in order to put the new plans into operation:

Resolved, That the action of the Special Committee for enlarging the usefulness of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, be approved; that the said Committee be continued, and that it be instructed to present to the next Legislature, and endeavor to obtain the enactment of, the bill, of which a copy is annexed to this report,

Resolved, That the said Special Committee be empowered and directed to print separately its two reports to this Convention, with such proper introduction and additions as may be necessary, and to distribute the same through the Diocese.

Resolved, That all undesignated donations made after October first, 1886, and all legacies given to the Corporation by wills executed after that date, be apportioned equally among the three funds provided for by said act and the canon, as amended at this Convention.

Resolved, That the rules for the management of the two additional funds established by said canon, which are annexed to this report, be adopted, and that, until further action of the Convention, the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund may alter, suspend, or add to said rules, in their discretion; but any such alteration, suspension, or addition shall be reported by the said Trustees to the next Convention.

The Committee also respectfully suggests to the Convention that, in case of the adoption of this report, it will be necessary to elect two additional Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, who should take office from the time of the amendment to the charter and the going into effect of the new canon.

The last Convention also referred to this Committee the following resolutions:

Resolved, That a committee of seven—four clergymen and three laymen—be appointed to consider the expediency of employing life insurance as a means of obtaining funds for Church purposes.

Resolved, That the Convention request the Bishop to give such credentials as he may deem fit to persons who may be willing, as life insurance agents, to attempt the carrying out of the scheme proposed.

As to these resolutions, the Committee reports that the questions raised thereby are so entirely distinct from the objects for which this Committee was appointed, that it has felt that it was not properly charged with their consideration. The Committee, therefore, is not prepared to recommend any action in regard to them.

Respectfully submitted.

c. In the case of clergymen whose families are not entitled to receive aid from this fund under the two preceding subdivisions of this rule, aid may nevertheless be extended to them if such clergymen shall have been at any time canonically connected with and engaged in active service in this diocese for the space of ten years, and such service need not necessarily have been continuous.

RULE 3. The amount of the aid extended shall be discretionary with the Trustees, and shall be fixed after considering the facts of each case. It may be diminished or discontinued at any time in the discretion of the Trustees.

Aid may be in the shape of an annuity or a donation or both.

Annuities shall not exceed :

c. Special donations not exceeding $200 per annum.

II.

RULES FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND FOR FACILITATING LIFE INSURANCE.

RULE 1. Aid from this fund shall not be extended to any clergyman unless he shall be resident in, and canonically connected with, the diocese.

RULE 2. The aid extended shall consist solely in the payment of a portion of the premium of a policy of insurance on the life of the clergymen applying for aid.

RULE 3. No insurance shall be effected by means of aid from this fund, for an amount exceeding $15,000, nor except in such Company or Companies as the Trustees shall deem proper.

RULE 4. The amount of aid extended shall be discretionary with the Trustees, and shall be fixed after considering the facts of each case. It may be diminished or discontinued at any time in the discretion of the Trustees.

RULE 5. Aid may be extended as follows :

b. In addition to the above payment, the Trustees may pay one-quarter of the amount of the premiums on any policy taken out subject to these rules. This payment shall be considered as a loan to the insured from the fund, without interest, payable (subject to the provisions of Rule 6) at his death, or at the sooner maturing of the policy. It shall be payable only from the proceeds of the policy, and no applicant shall be liable for any deficiency in case of failure to realize the amount of the loan out of such proceeds.

RULE 6. In case of the removal of the insured from the diocese, no further payments on account of the premiums shall be made, and that portion of the premiums which may theretofore have been loaned by said Trustees, may, in their discretion, become payable immediately.

RULE 7. Each policy shall be assigned by the insured to the Trustees, and held by them in trust to repay to themselves, upon the maturing of the policy, the amount of the loan made by them, and to pay the balance to the estate of the insured, or to such beneficiary as shall be named in the policy. They shall be empowered to surrender the policy in case of non-payment, by the insured, of that portion of the premium payable by him, or in case of removal of the insured from the diocese, or in any other case, in their discretion.

RULE 8. In the event of the surrender of the policy by the Trustees, they shall deduct from the amount received for its surrender-value, all payments made by them and which are to be considered as a loan under the above rules, and they shall pay the balance to the insured.

RULE 9. Applicants shall agree to release the Trustees from any liability for any loss by reason of the failure of the company insured in, or otherwise.

SCHEDULE C.

CANON XVII.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SECTION 1. Five lay trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for the Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

Present Canon 1st part of Sec. 2, with the exception of "Five" in place of "Three."

SECTION 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

Present Canon Sec. 3, substituting "Five" for "Three."

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds:

1st: The fund now provided for the relief of aged and infirm clergymen of the diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

New.

The language conforms to that of the proposed new charter.

2nd: A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of widows and children of deceased clergymen of the diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

New.
Vide supra.

3rd: A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the purpose of facilitating the effecting of life insurance by clergymen of the diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

Last part of present Canon Sec. 2; portions italicised are new.

SECTION 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st: As to the fund for aged and infirm clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841, and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention*, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

New.

2nd: As to the funds for the widows and children of clergymen, and for facilitating the effecting of Life Insurance by clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention shall from time to time adopt.

* (a). Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop, and three lay trustees to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

 (b). Another  source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

"With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the trustees. * * * In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest,

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should, therefore, be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given, ceteris paribus, to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

SECTION 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following. } Present Canon Sec. 1.

This collection and all other contributions and donations to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees. } Present Canon part of Sec. 4.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the Special designation of one or other of the three funds, be apportioned equally among the said three funds. The annual collection herein provided for shall, however, be divided equally between the fund for the widows and children of clergymen and the fund for facilitating the effecting of life insurance by clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said three funds, and } New.

all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees. } Present Canon last part of Sec. 4.

SECTION 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary. } Present Canon 1st part of Sec. 4. Portions italicised are new.

They shall meet at least twice in each year and shall keep minutes of their proceedings which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese, whenever called for. } Present Canon Sec. 5.

SECTION 7. The three Trustees elected at the Convention of 1886, as Trustees of the Fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen shall receive and hold all undesignated donations, all legacies under Wills executed after October 1st, 1886, and all undesignated sums received from the Thanksgiving collections of 1886 and subsequent years as a special deposit until such time as the first six sections of this Canon shall take effect (as provided in the next section) and thereupon they shall pay over all moneys so received to the Trustees who shall be the Trustees under Section One of this Canon.

SECTION 8. Section 7 of this Canon shall take effect immediately, and for this purpose so much of the former Canon XVI. as appropriates the Thanksgiving collections to the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen is hereby repealed. The first six sections of this Canon shall not take effect until such time as the Trustees of the present fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen shall have obtained such amendments to the Charter of the existing corporation as will enable the said corporation to hold the additional funds established by this Canon.

Until such time the former Canon XVI. (except as hereinabove repealed) shall remain in full force and effect, and from and after such time the said former Canon XVI. shall be repealed.

The first two Resolutions presented by the Committee were adopted. The third and fourth Resolutions were adopted to take effect immediately after the necessary legislation is secured.

The Rev. Dr. Richey gave notice that on Friday he should ask for the adoption of the Canon proposed by the Committee, which, by unanimous consent, was not referred to a special Committee.

Mr. George Macculloch Miller presented and read the

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE SALARY OF THE ASSISTANT BISHOP.

The Committee on the salary of the Assistant Bishop respectfully report :

In accordance with the resolution adopted at the last Convention, this Committee certified to the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, on the 27th of February last, that the sum needed to make up the difference between the income of the Fund in the hands of this Committee and $9,000 was $5,340, and the same has been since received by this Committee from the said Trustees.

The principal of the Fund in the hands of this Committee remains as last reported to the Convention, no effort having been made since then for its increase.

It is, however, respectfully suggested that hereafter, at no distant day, earnest and systematic effort should be made, either by this Committee, or by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, or by both, for obtaining a sufficient sum to make the amount of the Episcopal Fund, together with the amount of the Fund in the hands of this Committee, at least $250,000 ; or enough to yield a clear annual income of $12,500 for the support of the Episcopate of the Diocese.

Meanwhile, in view of the fact that it is necessary that the Assistant Bishop provide himself with a suitable residence, this Committee are of opinion that the present salary of $9,000 is inadequate for his proper support, and should be increased to $12,500 per annum. They, therefore, recommend that an annual allowance of $3,500 for house rent, in addition to his present salary, be made to the Assistant Bishop, until further ordered by the Convention, payable quarterly, the first payment thereof on the 21st of October next ; and to this end this Committee respectfully request the adoption of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That, in addition to the present salary of the Assistant Bishop, there be allowed and paid to him, until further ordered by this Convention, $3,500 per annum house rent, payable quarterly, the first payment thereof on the 21st day of October next.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund assess the Parishes of the Diocese, according to the method adopted for assessment of the salary of the Bishop, such sum as, on or before the first of January next, may be certified to them by the Committee on the salary of the Assistant Bishop as needed to make up the difference between the income of the Fund in the hands of such Committee, with income of the Episcopal Fund applicable thereto, and $12,500—allowance being made in such assessment to any Parish which, as a Parish, has contributed toward the principal of the Fund for the salary of the Assistant Bishop, at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the amount so contributed; and, also, every Parish making voluntary annual contribution toward such salary being allowed the amount so contributed on account of the assessment upon it.

Annexed are statements by the Treasurer, showing the sums received and paid out since the last report of this Committee, and the balance now in its hands.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Satterlee, it was Resolved, That when this Convention adjourn to-day, it immediately meet as the Diocesan Board of Missions.

The Rev. Dr. Morgan presented and read the Report of the Special Committee on the Albany Claim.

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON SETTLEMENT OF "THE ALBANY CLAIM."

The Committee beg to report that the promise of aid from the Mother Diocese of New York to the Diocese of Albany, in order to be redeemed, still requires a vigorous effort. Acting upon the compromise which, after much thought and mutual concession, was framed two years since, and accepted by both parties, the Committee have had a plan of settlement to go upon far more satisfactory than the one which preceded it, which, during so many years, was never introduced here without leading to acrimonious debate.

In the present plan, all questions of legal right on the part of the Diocese of Albany are waived, at least for the time. The Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York remains untouched, while an unseemly and painful disagreement between two adjoining Dioceses, holding the relation of Mother and Daughter, is exchanged for a method of settlement conceived in the spirit of Christian kindness and charity.

It is hoped, by this treatment of the matter, to obtain $28,000, the sum agreed upon in the compromise as an offering to Albany, and to accomplish this by an assessment of ten per cent. upon the salaries of the Rectors, to be paid by the several parishes of the Diocese. The Committee reported substantial progress to the last Convention, and, although disappointed and dissatisfied at the review of their work during the present conventional year, a decided advance has been made. It is something, at least, that the Venerable Corporation of Trinity Church, whose able representatives in this body from the outset have resisted all resort to the Episcopal Fund, consents to be assessed, provided the whole amount is secured. It is understood that Grace Church will do the same upon the same condition, and St. Thomas's Church also accepts the assessment without condition. These three parishes supply a goodly portion of what is required.

The Committee accordingly renew their appeal to the Convention, and through the Convention to the Diocese, for a more lively co-operation and support. They invoke such immediate effort, upon the basis of this compromise, as shall produce the result without delay. It is vain to expect release from such an obligation by disowning it or postponing it. If it carry the weight of an obligation—and very many in both Dioceses are prepared to maintain that it does—then the sooner it is discharged the better, for we cannot forget that this is a matter between brethren—members of one spiritual household, who should not only be eager to allay disension, and pluck up every root of bitterness, but even more eager to set before the world a high example of delicacy and alacrity in discharging dues, and who should give to a promise solemnly made the force of an oath, or a registered bond, and not remain content until it was satisfied.

The Committee would barely add to their report a respectful reference to the removal, by death, of two distinguished gentlemen from the Diocese of Albany, both long identified with this interest, who, within the present year, have been called away—the Rev. Francis Harison, D.D., and Judge James Forsyth. Even in its bearing upon general interests, the loss of such men to the young Diocese is not easily computed, but to no one object were these gentlemen more earnestly devoted than to the adjustment of this claim. Judge Forsyth, to whom the Bishop of Albany refers in a recent obituary as “the foremost Layman of his Diocese,” was conspicuously and from the outset its untiring advocate—insisting that in default of its payment it could be legally enforced. Upon the adoption of the compromise, however, he gladly welcomed the prospect of a harmonious settlement, and no member of the Joint Committee, either in tone or manner, did more to promote peace than Judge Forsyth.

While the sod is still fresh upon the graves of our associates in this work, it would be a most timely and fitting thing if we could bring it to a conclusion, and send to the Diocese of Albany the full amount of the compromise, with reassuring words of sympathy and affection.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM F. MORGAN,
CLARENCE BUEL,
GEO. MACCULLOCH MILLER.

On motion of the Rev. Clarence Buel, the following preamble and resolution were adopted :

Whereas, The adjustment of the questions at issue between this Diocese and the Diocese of Albany has reached a stage which gives fairer promise of final settlement than at any time heretofore; and,

Whereas, There is now reason to hope that, with vigorous efforts, such final settlement of the whole matter can be reached within the period fixed by the Conference Committee of 1884, to wit, September 1, 1889; therefore,

Resolved, That the Assistant Bishop be and is hereby requested to bring the subject to the attention of the Diocese, with such suggestions and recommendations as will, in his judgment, arouse the interest of Parishes and individuals in favor of the compromise reported by the aforesaid Committee, and tend to bring the same to speedy accomplishment.

The Order of the Day having been called, the Convention proceeded to the consideration of the Resolutions proposed by the Rev. Dr. Richey. [See page 36.]

The Rev. Dr. Huntington offered the following amendment :

Insert in the first Resolution, the word "all" between the words "of" and "the," and omit in the same line the word "as," so that the Resolution will read "does not favor the adoption by the General Convention of 1886 of all the alterations and additions set forth," etc.

The question being taken on this amendment, it was not adopted. Ayes, 90 ; Noes, 118.

The Rev. Mr. Anketell offered the following amendment to the fourth Resolution, which was not adopted :

Resolved, That the General Convention be requested to consider the expediency of referring to a Synod of all Bishops in communion with the See of Canterbury, uniformity in any ritual changes which shall be deemed desirable in the uses of the Churches of the Anglican Communion.

The four Resolutions proposed by the Rev. Dr. Richey were then adopted.

The Rev. T. McKee Brown offered the following Resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Deputies of this Diocese be directed to present an authorized copy of the foregoing Resolutions of the Diocese of New York, to the House of Deputies, at an early day in the sessions of the General Convention of 1886, as the expression of the opinion of this Diocese upon the great subject of the revision of the Book of Common Prayer.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Swope, the foregoing Resolution was reconsidered, and all after "1886" was rescinded.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Satterlee, it was ordered that fifteen hundred copies of the Assistant Bishop's Triennial Charge be printed.

The Secretary read the following dispatch from the Bishop of South Carolina :

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 30, 1886.

REV. FRANCIS LOBDELL, D.D.,

Secretary of the Convention of the Diocese of New York :

Please return to the Bishop, Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of New York, in Convention assembled, my warmest thanks for their sympathy in behalf of this Diocese and of the Church people of Charleston, expressed in their Resolution of yesterday. May God bless you all, my dear brethren !

W. B. W. HOWE,

Bishop of the Diocese of South Carolina.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Canedy, the Order of the Day, being the consideration of the Report of the Committee of Conference of the Five Dioceses of the State of New York,* was postponed until the next Convention by the following vote,—Ayes, 77 ; Noes, 61.

The Rev. Dr. Rainsford presented and read the

Report

OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE SUPPLEMENT TO THE HYMNAL.

The Committee appointed at the last Diocesan Convention, to memorialize the General Convention, in reference to a Supplement to the Hymnal, the use of which shall be optional, beg leave respectfully to report that they are unanimously of the opinion that a Supplement to the Hymnal is greatly to be desired, and that this Convention should memorialize the General Convention to take such action as in its wisdom it shall deem most expedient to accomplish such a result ; and

Whereas, There seems to be a great need for hymns of a distinctly missionary character—for special seasons and services, as well as for the great aggressive work which the Church should be doing,

Be it resolved, That the Diocese of New York is of the opinion that such a Supplement as is proposed is desirable, and that the General Convention should be memorialized through its Deputies, to take such action as it may deem most expedient.

Resolved, That the Deputies of this Convention to the General Convention, to be held in Chicago during October, 1886, be requested to present, in the name and on the behalf of the Diocese of New York, the following Memorial, to wit :

The Diocese of New York prays and memorializes the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, that it appoint a Commission to prepare a Supplement to the Hymnal of the Church, comprising,

First : Hymns distinctively missionary, and for special services and seasons, and for the great aggressive work which the Church should be doing ; and Second : A collection of Hymns that shall fairly place our Hymnology on a level with that of the other branches of the Anglican Church.

That pending the action of such Committee, and the subsequent action of the General Convention, the use of Hymns, Ancient and Modern, and the Hymnal Companion to the Book of Common Prayer, be permitted.

W. S. RAINSFORD, Chairman.

J. W. SHACKELFORD,

W. H. COOKE,

RICHARD P. WILLIAMS,

HALEY FISKE.

The Memorial proposed by the Committee was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Seabury offered the following Resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That a Committee of five, consisting of the Assistant Bishop and two clergymen and two laymen, to be designated by the Chair, be appointed to consider and report at the next meeting of this Convention, whether any change be needed in Canon XVII. of the Diocesan Canons, entitled "Of the trial of a clergyman not being a Bishop," in order to make it better fitted either to give due effect to the right of prescribing the mode of trial of Presbyters and Deacons, guaranteed to the Diocese by Article 6 of the Constitution of the General Convention, or to secure the administration of discipline in this Diocese, with due regard to the purity of the Church and the maintenance of the just rights of the clergy ; and if, in their judgment, such a course be desirable, to report a proposed Canon as a substitute, if adopted by the Convention, for said Canon XVII.

The Chair appointed as such Committee :

The Rev. WM. J. SEABURY, D.D., the Rev. WM. R. HUNTINGTON, D.D., Mr. STEPHEN P. NASH, and Mr. BACHE McE. WHITLOCK.

The Rev. Dr. Seabury offered the following Resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to communicate to the several Secretaries of the Conventions of the other Dioceses within the State of New York, the request of this Convention for the appointment of a Committee of the Convention of each of the said Dioceses empowered to confer with the Committee of this Convention, appointed to consider the mode of trial of Presbyters and Deacons, with a view to the formulation of a proposed system of appeals, founded upon joint Canonical provisions of the five Dioceses in the State of New York, and providing for the revision, modification, affirmation or reversal of the sentence of a Diocesan Bishop based upon the findings of a Diocesan Court, by the judgment of the Bishops of the other Dioceses in this State ; and for appeal from that judgment, only in cases involving questions of doctrine, to all the Bishops of the Church in these United States, in Council assembled, if and when they shall consent to receive such appeal.

Mr. S. P. Nash, for the Committee on Canons, presented the following Report :

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred, in connection with a defective certificate of the election of certain lay delegates, to examine and report as to the propriety of amending Subdivision (III.) of Sec. 6, of Canon II., respectfully report that they recommend that said Canon be amended in said subdivision, by inserting after the word "Rector," in the second paragraph, the words "or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal vestry meeting held in his absence."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Sept. 30, 1886.

ALFRED B. BEACH,
Chairman.

The recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Buel, the Special Committee on the "Albany Claim," was continued, and the Bishop in charge was requested to fill any vacancies that may exist in the Committee.

Mr. Charles H. Kitchell offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Canons :

No alterations in the Canons of this Diocese, or additions thereto, shall be considered by the Convention unless such proposed alterations or additions shall have been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least three weeks before the meeting of the Convention, and the Secretary shall have had the same printed and sent to each of the clerical members of the Convention, by mail, directed to him at his last known place of residence at least ten days before the meeting of the Convention, with a sufficient number of copies thereof to supply each lay delegate from the respective parishes.

The Rev. Dr. Shackelford offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention desires to acknowledge the receipt of the Memorial on Christian Unity, communicated to it by the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania,* and to express its hearty sympathy with every wise and well-directed effort for promoting the reunion of Christendom.

The Convention adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

This sum may be increased during the present session of the Convention.

During the past Conventional year twenty-four young gentlemen belonging to the Diocese of New York, distributed in various Institutions, have been pursuing their studies with a view to the Sacred Ministry, supported in part by the aid of the Society. The Superintendent feels justified in saying, from personal knowledge, and from sufficient evidence where personal knowledge was wanting, that this aid has been well bestowed.

The scholarships granted by the Society to these beneficiaries represent but a small part of its work. The cause of Theological Education in the other four Dioceses of New York is equally embraced within the purpose of its organization. So that with practically a fixed income, and with an increasing number of applications for assistance from year to year, it becomes more and more important that its funds should be supplemented by the collections in the Parishes. It is but a small sum that the individual receives, and not at all sufficient for his support. Many necessary expenses must be defrayed from his private means, and, to mention one heavy charge, among others, for which no provision is made, the purchase of proper text-books is a constant tax upon his resources, which he is too often unable to meet. His life, at best, is a struggle with difficulties which entitles him to the sympathy of the Church. If it be true that there is a perceptible falling off in the number of candidates for Holy Orders, sufficient to awaken alarm and apprehension, may it not be owing, in some measure, to the natural shrinking of young men from the uncertainties and anxieties which are incident to the period of preparation? And should not the fact, if it be a fact, lead to a more general and more liberal compliance with the provisions of the Canon?

The Superintendent, in behalf of the Society, would express the hope that the statement and appeal of the Committee appointed at a recent meeting of the Convention will be carefully considered by the Clergy and Parishes of the Diocese.

All which is respectfully submitted.

ANDREW OLIVER,
Superintendent.

NEW YORK, September, 1886.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund was presented and read by the Rev. Arthur Brooks, and the resolution recommended in this report was adopted :

RESOLUTION OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund respectfully recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That there be paid to the Clergy attending the Convention, who reside more than twenty miles from the place of meeting, and whose Parishes have contributed to the Fund, as required by the Canon, ten cents for every mile of the distance from their respective Parishes, and that the remainder be appropriated to paying for the printing of the Journal of the Convention, and the Canonical, customary and prescribed expenses of the Diocese.

October 1, 1886.

The Rev. Dr. Van Rensselaer presented and read the Report of the Standing Committee on the General Theological Seminary:

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Nothing has occurred in the history of the General Theological Seminary during the past year to impair the statement of the Committee of the last Diocesan Convention that "its condition is such as to justify the expectations of its friends, and to inspire confidence for the future." That confidence has been realized in its measure, and, judging from the large assemblage of Alumni at the last Commencement, it is widely shared. The laying of the corner-stone of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, which took place on that occasion, was a delightful evidence of the devout generosity awakened in behalf of the Seminary, and a cheering augury of renewed and increased benediction on its sacred work. It is gratifying to your Committee to be able to report that the number of students has only been equalled in one year of its existence.

The interests of this Diocese in the Seminary are so large and varied, and the means of obtaining information at the assembling of the Convention so inadequate, that your Committee are of opinion that a permanent Committee should be appointed to sit during the recess and report to the succeeding Convention.

As there is no vacancy in the Trustees chosen by the Convention of 1885 to "hold their office until the Convention next following the General Convention of 1886," this Committee has no nomination to make. But the question how long the Trustees for Dioceses are to serve "is an open one and various views are held on that point." Your Committee would recommend that this Convention request the General Convention to define the length of their tenure of office.

Respectfully submitted.

M. VAN RENSSELAER,
R. S. MANSFIELD,
GEO. McC. MILLER.
M. T. PYNE.

The Committee presented the following Resolutions, which were adopted :

Resolved, That the Committee on the General Theological Seminary be continued and directed to report to the Convention next succeeding their appointment.

Resolved, That the General Convention be requested to define the tenure of office of the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary to be chosen by the Dioceses.

The Convention proceeded to the consideration of the Canon "Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen," proposed yesterday by the Special Committee on Enlarging the Usefulness of the Fund.*

The Canon was adopted.

On motion of the Secretary, the ballot was unanimously dispensed with, and MESSRS. BACHE McE. WHITLOCK, GEORGE MONTAGUE and JOHN H. HEWSON were elected Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Richey, Messrs. W. C. BOULTON and HUGH N. CAMP were elected as additional Trustees, according to the provision of Section 1 of the Canon just adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Canedy, the following Resolutions were adopted :

Resolved, That the Committee of Conference on the Act of Incorporation of Religious Societies be continued.

Resolved, That the Committee of Conference be requested to inform the Committees of the other Dioceses in this State of the desire on the part of this Diocese for delay in the proposed legislation until time is had for further consideration by this Convention.

The Rev. Mr. Buel offered the following Resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the members of the Committee from this Diocese on the Conference Committee having in charge the proposed changes in the Act for the Incorporation of Parishes, be requested to procure, if possible, an alteration in accordance with the following suggested amendment :

1. The original poll list of qualified voters shall remain in force, with such additions as may be made to it from year to year, and shall be presumptive evidence of the right to vote of all whose names appear on it ; subject, nevertheless, to correction as follows :

* See page 69.

a. By having the names stricken off of those who, after a previous notice of seven days at least, do not appear at the time for arranging the poll list and again qualify.

b. And subject further to the right of challenge at the time of election, by any qualified voter who may question the right of any such registered voter.

APPENDIX A.

ADDRESS

TO THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK, 1886.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY: .

Appended to this address will be found a detailed statement of my official acts for the past year. In addition to this, I have celebrated the Holy Communion fifty-five times, baptized one infant, celebrated six marriages (of the clergy or of persons without a parochial connection), and officiated at five funerals. Four corner-stones have been laid, five Churches or Parish Houses have been consecrated or dedicated, and I have also officiated in connection with the opening services of two Churches not yet ready for consecration. Of the corner-stones, two have been laid upon the grounds of the General Theological Seminary (one of them by the Bishop of Long Island) representing the beginnings of the Deanery and the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, by which structures the already greatly improved material fabric of the Seminary will be carried a long way toward completion, and the crown will be set upon the noble group of buildings to be assembled on this venerable site, by the addition of the beautiful and stately Memorial now in process of erection. In this connection, my thanks are due to the Dean and Standing Committee of the Seminary for enabling me to hold the usual Wednesday Reception for the members of the Convention in the new library, thus giving them an opportunity to see what has been accomplished during the past few years in the betterment of an Institution in which the whole Church has so deep an interest.

On the 28th of November last, at a service in which I was assisted by divers of the neighboring clergy, I consecrated the Church of the Holy Cross, Clintondale, an edifice begun some years ago, and recently completed through the energetic labors of the Rev. Mr. Tarrant, of Highland Falls. It is, as yet, only a Missionary Station, but offers a promising opening for the labors of the Western Convocation. Let me here acknowledge the gifts of those who, in various parts of the Diocese, generously aided in its completion.

December 2d, I was privileged to dedicate the Parish House of Christ Church, Yonkers, a fresh instance of the liberality of one to whom the Church in that community owes not a little; and on December 16th, I formally opened and set apart the Sisters' House and Oratory of the Sisterhood of the Good Shepherd at No. 191 Ninth Avenue, in this city. In this new Home for a special department of their work, these faithful women, to whom the Church is greatly indebted for their labors in connection with St. Barnabas' House in this city, have undertaken the training of girls for domestic service, and other much-neglected departments of the nurture of the young. I ask for them, as for all those who are doing a similar work, the sympathy and aid of Church people. Our sisterhoods are, after all, practically voluntary institutions—religious families, for which the Church, in its corporate capacity, is at present no otherwise responsible than it is for the government of individual families. Personally, I am disposed to think that it is quite as well as otherwise that it should be so; but while this makes it possible for individuals among us to say of sisterhoods that their work is not the Church's concern, it is still not inappropriate to ask whether, so long as such workers are doing a work which nobody else in the Church is doing—as, for instance, in the case of the Midnight Mission, now exclusively carried on by members of the Sisterhood of St. John Baptist—it may not be worth while to encourage and sustain them so far as we can conscientiously do so.

On the 10th day of June, I consecrated St. Thomas' Church, Mamaroneck, a service the details of which are appended to this address, and which will long be memorable to those who were permitted to take part in it. In connection with the erection of this Church and of the Parsonage and Parish House connected with it, the whole being Memorial to Mrs. Henrietta Constable, and erected by her husband, James M. Constable, and her three children, Frederick A. Constable, Mrs. Harriette M. Arnold, and Mrs. Amy H. Weatherbee, a very large expenditure has been made with a wisdom and taste which may well be mentioned here as an illustration of what a Church edifice should be in dignity of design and construction, and in chaste beauty of adornment. The family to which the Church owes this munificent gift has its roots in our mother country and our mother Church, and no better example of what is distinctively Anglican in its freedom from tawdriness and cheapness, and in its downright reality and integrity, could well be afforded. It is well worth a pilgrimage to Mamaroneck to see it, and I congratulate my reverend brother, the Rector, that it is given to a great-grandson of White, and to a successor of De Lancey, to continue his faithful labors in a structure so especially suggestive of the source from which both the great prelates whom I have named and himself derived their ministerial commissions.

On the First Sunday after Trinity, June 27, I re-consecrated St. Luke's Church, New York, partially destroyed by fire some months previously, but now happily restored to more than its original comeliness and completeness. Its venerable Rector, though sorely chastened by sorrow upon sorrow, was enabled to be present, and it was my privilege then, as it is in this presence to-day, to tell him how deep and affectionate, in view of his successive bereavements, was the sympathy of his brethren. On the occasion of a meeting of clergymen in this city some time ago, to take action upon the death of one of their number, a near relative was present to listen to the testimonies of affection and respect which were freely borne, and upon their conclusion remarked, "If you loved him so dearly, why did you never tell him so!" I hope I shall not forget the lesson of that most pertinent question, and I am sure you will not deny me the privilege, in this connection, of referring in grateful affection to one who for nearly forty years, as the Rector of St. Luke's in this city, has been to his brethren and to the Church an example of all that is pure and faithful and lovely and of good report. May God bless him in his green old age, and grant him a yet longer continuance among us!

Besides the occasions already referred to, I have officiated at the newly-erected Church of the Reformation, in Stanton Street, in this city, where a Mission work of great importance is being done, through the generosity of a few persons to whom is also owing the erection, since October last, when I laid the corner-stone, of one of the most substantial and admirably arranged ecclesiastical fabrics in the Diocese. Very few Church people know what is being done by the Church in the lower part of the city of New York, and yet, inadequate as it is to the needs of the case, it is comparatively so extensive and excellent as to be cause for devout gratitude—first to God, and then to a few faithful lay-people, by whom, in this instance, it has been so largely sustained, whose unknown and unheralded devotion of means and personal service to the welfare of the most neglected is above all praise.

Another Church, completed and opened for divine service during the past year, is the new and tasteful edifice of Grace Church, West Farms, where, under the faithful and remarkably successful ministry of the Rev. Mr. Derbyshire, a most cheering growth and revival of interest in the Church and its work have come to pass.

In July last, in company with the Treasurer of the City Mission, John H. Boynton, Esq., to whose unwearied attention and oversight its completion is largely due, I visited the Clergy House and Reading Room for the work of that Mission, which have been provided on Bleecker Street, convenient to St. Barnabas' House and Chapel. Here accommodations have been arranged for those Deacons of the Diocese (two of whom, the Rev. Messrs. Chapman and Freeman, have already volunteered for the work, and entered upon it), who may devote themselves during their Diaconate to Missionary service in this city. I am greatly rejoiced to be able to say, that a plan sketched here a year ago, has thus already been happily inaugurated.

Another work of the Church in this Diocese, whose influence and activities have, since its inauguration, extended to many and distant parts of the Church of the United States—I mean the Church Mission to Deaf Mutes—has during the past year added to its equipment and greatly advanced its usefulness by the purchase of a very valuable property on the east bank of the Hudson, thus enabling it to open an institution for Deaf Mutes, under conditions of unusual interest and promise. Between Poughkeepsie and New Hamburg, the Trustees of the Society have acquired a farm of some one hundred and sixty-five acres, having upon it an admirably constructed and spacious stone mansion and all necessary outbuildings, where farming and other industrial pursuits are to be carried on under the sanctions and influences of a Christian Home. On the 10th of May last, I made my first Visitation to this Institution, which, in view of the long and distinguished services of our honored brother, the Rector of St. Ann's Church in this city, the founder of the whole work, has been named by the Trustees "the Gallaudet Home for Deaf Mutes," and in the Oratory of the Home I confirmed five persons. In this undertaking the Church has an example of the truest ideal of Christian charity, which, while caring for an unfortunate and isolated class, has wisely coupled its beneficence with such practical training in self-help as will best contribute to the happiness and usefulness of those whom it aims to serve. As such it has a significance and importance of the highest character, and I am sure I may, in your behalf, as well as my own, congratulate my reverend brother and his associates, clerical and lay, upon this crowning success in a work of which the Church throughout the land may justly be proud.

Another forward step in the work of the Diocese has been taken in Richmond County, where at St. John's Church, Clifton, Staten Island, on the 23d of November last, I was permitted, with the aid of all my brethren of the clergy of the island, and several of the faithful laity, to organize the Richmond Convocation, and to take steps, which have already been partially completed, for the enlarged missionary work of that important and rapidly growing suburb of New York. In this effort I was cordially seconded by brethren of very various shades of opinion and usage, and I desire in this presence to acknowledge the cordial hospitality on the one hand, and chivalric courtesies and co-operation on the other, which made of a somewhat delicate and difficult task, one of comparative ease and pleasure. There is room on Staten Island for a great deal of Church work, and I pray that, in whatever way it may be done, the spirit of unity and concord, already so happily exhibited, may continue and increase in the doing of it.

In this connection, as appropriately as any other, I may speak of the Advent Mission held in this city last December, and of other Parochial Missions held earlier and later in various parts of the Diocese. So far as external tokens could indicate, the interest in these various Missions was all and more than we had been led to expect. As to their results, I can only testify from my own observation, that they were in many parishes evident and most salutary. The Mission idea and its practical workings have very naturally and very properly been made the subjects of extensive criticism, and I hope I recognize the possible dangers of methods which may perhaps, in some aspects of them, seem to bear too close a resemblance to agencies and practices from which the Church has thus far been happily free. But I hope also the time may never come, when I shall be wanting in sympathy with an honest effort to awaken the Church to a more earnest spiritual life, to a keener sense of its responsibilities, and to a more active endeavor for the rescue of those who are perishing; and that this was very widely, and in some cases very profoundly, the result of the Mission, I have no slightest doubt. If there are other and better ways of accomplishing the same ends, let others of our brethren in the Church who have found them out, and whose ministry is a witness to their fruits, do us the rare service of telling us of them ; and meantime, if any one desires to know what a Parochial Mission may do, in a field and under circumstances where there was the least to foment undue excitement, or to produce artificial impressions, let him ask our brother, the Rev. Mr. Van Winkle—I wish he could do so to this Convention and from this place—to tell him the story of the Mission last Lent at St. Mary's, Cold Spring. The Parochial Mission is by no means a perfect agency, and its value will naturally be most apparent to those who make use of it. But these have thus far found it both stimulating and helpful, and I am sure they will unite with me in thanksgiving to God for its many blessings, and in grateful acknowledgment to our brethren of the Church of England, and of her daughter in Canada, for the generous services which they most freely rendered in connection with it.

Occasional Missions remind us of that other Missionary work which belongs to the whole Diocese, the more effective organization and prosecution of which a Special Committee, acting under your appointment made a year ago, has had under its consideration. In this connection I am glad to be able to state that the Missionary Committee of the Diocese has already been enabled to make a beginning on both sides of the Hudson, through the services of the Rev. Mr. Tracy in Putnam and Westchester Counties, and of the Rev. Mr. Symonds in Orange and Sullivan Counties, of the itinerant missionary work, the plan of which I submitted a year ago, and by which some of our feebler stations can alone be regularly and permanently cared for.

Another important and long-desired end has also been almost, if not entirely attained, during the past year, in connection with our Diocesan Missionary work, of which I desire personally to make very grateful mention. A proposition, which in behalf of the Missionary Committee I made to some of the stronger parishes of the Diocese, that each one of them should become responsible for some definite contribution to the Missionary Work of the Diocese, was at once so cordially and promptly responded to, that for the first time in my experience of nearly twenty years in this Diocese, we have been enabled to complete the Diocesan fiscal year without any special appeal, and without keeping our poorly-paid Missionaries waiting for their over-due stipends. Let me here thank all those to whom this happy result is due, and whose cheerful readiness in the manner as well as the matter of their givings, was a very real refreshment to me.

Our Diocesan Missions remind us of our Diocesan history, which with its Missionary beginnings we had occasion to review in connection with our annual meeting a year ago. At that time a Committee was appointed to prepare and publish a suitable Memorial of the Centennial of the Diocese, and from the Secretary of the Committee, General James Grant Wilson, you have heard a Report of the work of the Committee, which has already been given to the Church through the published volume issued in June last. That volume is a monument to the painstaking labors of those members of the Committee who, unlike myself, were able to give to it their personal attention, and I am glad that the Convention has taken action in suitable acknowledgment of their services, and especially of those of the Secretary, to whose careful conduct of the volume through the press, and for many other labors in connection with it, we owe a great deal.

The volume thus completed is a history of those who, with the close of the century which it commemorates, had many of them rested from their labors. Since then the long list of our departed has been increased by the death of

The Rev. John Murray Forbes, D.D.,
The Rev. John C. Fleischhacker,
The Rev. Frederick N. Luson,
The Rev. George Waters, D.D.,
The Rev. McWalter B. Noyes,
The Rev. Wm. E. Phillips.

No one of these brethren had a cure in the Diocese at the time of his death, and only two of them were resident here. Mr. Fleischhacker had long and earnestly labored among his German and Hebrew brethren in this city, and Dr. Waters is doubtless well remembered by the elders among us who had the advantage of me in his personal acquaintance and in a knowledge of that faithful ministry at Kingston, to which some of his brethren have lately borne such cordial testimony.

Dr. Forbes was for many years a conspicuous figure in the history of this Diocese, in connection with events of which I know only the traditions, but I remember him very well as Dean of the Seminary, and have, as many must have, grateful memories of the kindly courtesies with which his intercourse with his brethren were habitually marked.

From among the laity we have lost among others

Mr. T. B. Coddington,
Mr. Joseph Howland,
Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt,
Mr. Jacob Reese,
Mr. David B. Williamson,
Mr. Benjamin Moore.

Of these, Messrs. Vanderbilt and Reese, were members of the Vestry of St. Bartholomew's Church in this city, which owed a large debt, as since his departure the Church in this Diocese and throughout the land has come to do, to the wise munificence of the former, and to the untiring services as its Treasurer, and many other good works of the latter. Mr. Joseph Howland, as a parishioner and benefactor of St. Luke's Church, Matteawan, Mr. David B. Williamson, as Warden of Zion Church, Dobb's Ferry, and Mr. Benjamin Moore, of Trinity Church, Sing Sing, have left to the Church a legacy of such rare devotion to the interests of the cause of Christ and His Church that it will long endure a fragrant memory among all who knew them.

Mr. Thomas B. Coddington was a Churchman from the heartiest conviction, and of the warmest attachments. Who, that ever knew him, will forget his engaging presence, his singular modesty, his utter and exhaustless unselfishness? To some of us here he was a friend so dear that his place can never be filled. To all who knew him he was so truly a type of the upright merchant, the Christian gentleman, the unswerving friend of all who were in any kind of trouble, whether of mind, body, or estate, that it seemed only consonant with all that had gone before that his efforts to minister to one of these should have contributed to cost him his life. From the contemplation of such a life one turns back to his daily tasks with a new and heartier faith in God and in man.

Beyond our own borders, the Church has been bereaved by the loss of the Right Rev. Dr. Young, the Bishop of Florida, and the Right Rev. Dr. Robertson, the Bishop of Missouri. Both fathers of the Church were originally presbyters of this Diocese, and, while one of them was distinguished for his services in connection with our relations to Foreign Churches, and his warm and self-sacrificing efforts in behalf of Church work in Cuba, the other was no less deserving of honor for his unwearied and eminently successful Episcopate in a large and unwieldy jurisdiction, where he has left behind him, in the hearts of men of every creed and calling, a lasting record of his Apostolic labors.

Two subjects will be brought before the Convention, for which I invoke your consideration, and, as far as may be possible, your united action. The one will be presented in the report of the Special Committee on the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, a trust now so enlarged in its scope and powers as to command all our sympathies. The other will be brought to your notice in the Canon of Diocesan Missions, which proposes well-considered and important changes looking to the increased efficiency of our Diocesan Missionary work, and which has been prepared by an able Committee with no little labor and care.

I also beg herewith to communicate to the House resolutions looking to the reunion of Christendom, transmitted to me from the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania, which I commend to your respectful consideration.* The divisions of the followers of Jesus Christ are to-day among the foremost hindrances to the advancement of His Kingdom. It will be a dishonor to us if we shall seem by our silence to be indifferent to them, and, if we can do no more, we can at least put upon record our prayer that they may cease, and our sympathy with every wise and well-directed effort to that end.

It may be well, in concluding, that I should, in view of the approaching meeting of the General Convention, add a summary of Episcopal Acts for the past three years. It is as follows :

Confirmations.....	11,132
Persons admitted to be candidates for Holy Orders.....	122
Ordinations.....	68
" to the Diaconate	38
" " Priesthood.....	30
Clergy received into the Diocese.....	60
" dismissed from " "	53
" deceased.....	23
Lay Readers licensed.....	152
Sermons and Addresses delivered.....	1,061
Celebrations of the Holy Communion.....	144

I am thankful to be able to add that in this period of three years neither accident, indisposition, nor any other cause has prevented the fulfillment of a single appointment for Episcopal Visitation, though of these there have been nearly one thousand altogether.

And now, brethren, I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

EXTRACT FROM THE JOURNAL OF THE CONVENTION, JUNE 9, 1886.

The committee on so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to Christian Unity reported through the Rev. Dr. Langdon, and the resolutions were adopted unanimously :

REPORT.

Whereas, There is evidence that very many of our Christian brethren now separated from communion with us and with each other are laying seriously to heart the great dangers we are in by reason of our unhappy divisions ; and

Whereas, Alike through the press and on the platform of public assemblies the hope and possibility of the restoration of Catholic Christian unity has become the subject of serious discussion ; therefore,

Resolved, That the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania respectfully prays the General Convention of this Church, at the approaching session, not only to commend this subject earnestly to the active attention of the Commission on Ecclesiastical Relations, but also to appoint a special Joint Committee, charged to inquire what duty these facts lay upon this Church ; and to report what obstacles to such reunion exist for which we are responsible ; and how they may be removed : that in no respect may any errors, shortcomings, or wrong of ours be an offense or " an occasion to fall in our brother's way."

Resolved, also, That the House of Bishops be respectfully asked to consider whether it be not fitting, under such circumstances, and in view of the great reproach brought upon the name of our dear Lord by such divisions among His disciples, to set apart a day and to invite our Christian brethren of every name to unite with us in humbling ourselves before God, confessing our sins, beseeching him to remove this reproach from His people and from His Church, and so to pour out upon us all the Holy Spirit of all grace and truth, that " all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord," may be taken away, that as there is but one Body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may henceforth be all of one heart and one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, with " one mind and one mouth glorifying God," that thus, not only with our lips, but in our lives, we may more effectually bear witness to our Lord Jesus Christ, and preach His Gospel among men.

* See page 96.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Langdon, it was Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have the resolutions referring to Christian Unity printed for transmission to the several Bishops of the Church, and to the Secretaries of the several Diocesan Conventions.

Attest,

R. A. LAMBERTON,
Secretary.

The number of Parishioners and of Communicants remains about the same as in last year's report; of Services and of Contributions to Canonical and other objects, it was less. The enforced and prolonged absence of the Rector, owing to a sudden and prostrating illness, accounts for this diminution. The attendance, however, at the services that have been held has not been diminished, and is exceptionally large, especially at the Holy Communion, in proportion to the whole number of parishioners. The spirit of the Parish in this and other respects deserves marked commendation.

The Rev. Lucius Waterman has officiated regularly and efficiently, during the Rector's absence, on Sunday mornings, and on each Friday during Lent; and his continued and kind assistance since the Rector resumed his duty is hereby acknowledged.

During the past year the Church has received two valuable gifts of land through the generosity of Mr. William A. Davies, the founder of the Parish, enlarging its property on the south 125 by 100 feet, and on the west 125 by 70 feet, thus making ample room for much needed Parish buildings. The property has also been enclosed by a handsome fence, through the liberality of Mr. George A. Bech, another member of the Board of Trustees.

The Rev. F. H. Du Vernet, of Toronto, Canada, conducted a Mission in this Parish during sixteen days in the season of Advent last. Careful preparation and earnest prayer for six months in advance prepared the way for the devoted Missioner, whose labors were abundantly blessed of God. The Parish has felt the stimulus and the blessing of his labors to the present hour.

The Rev. N. E. Cornwall, Assistant Minister of this Parish, resigned January, 1886, to assume charge of the Church in Medina, Ohio, and was succeeded by the Rev. John Marshall Chew, Trinity Sunday, June, 1886.

The large number of apparent removals is due to the transfer of 115 members to the care of Rev. Mr. Chalmers, at the Chapel, and to a thorough revision of the Parish Register, eliminating non-resident members.

This Mission has conducted uninterrupted services for 13 years in the City of New York, and brought many fruits of everlasting life among a people totally void of moral and religious education. This success has been achieved principally through sacrifices and hardships of the Minister in charge—the institutor of the Mission. A pious lady during the past summer, bought a Church in the heart of the Italian quarters of the city for the use of the Mission. It is expected that the work will not only continue to flourish, but that in time it will become a self-supporting corporation, and bring glory to God and honor to this Church. The Mission is now incorporated and the building it is about to occupy will be called "San Salvatore."

St. Ann's is a free Church for the people, with a special mission to deaf mutes. In the purchase of its property in 1859, it assumed a mortgage of $50,000. This has been reduced to $20,000. The earnest prayers of many people are offered daily that God would lead those who have the means to cancel the indebtedness of St. Ann's, and thus enable it to do its work more effectively. "The Endowment Society of St. Ann's Church for Deaf Mutes" was incorporated in 1883, to hold a fund of which the interest should be handed over to the Vestry for the current expenses of the Parish. The Fund has reached $30,000. As it increases, the important work undertaken by this Parish will, with God's blessing, influence larger numbers of the scattered people of this great city and bring them into the fold of the Good Shepherd.

During the year the Church has been called to mourn the loss of Col. Richard M. Hoe, who for twenty years was a most efficient Vestryman and Warden. The many improvements which have been made upon the property of the Parish bear abundant testimony to the benevolent and large-heartedness of this beloved and faithful servant of Jesus. In every department of our work we find very much to cheer us and encourage us. Financially, the receipts meet the current expenses, while there are no debts to hinder and retard the Church's development.

Guarantee Fund subscribed by six members of St. George's Congregation for 3 years, expires this year.

The Pews are all free but one or two.

As to the working of St. George's Parish it should be borne in mind that a very large proportion of its Congregation is drawn from the boarding-house classes.

Among these people changes of residence are often as frequent as three times a year. This immensely increases our difficulties, and makes absolutely accurate reports of numbers almost impossible.

A large number of bona fide working men and women are also reckoned among our Communicants; fully three-fourths of those attending the earlier celebrations are working people.

The very complete Parish Building, that is now in process of erection next the Church, will, I hope, help us much to reach and hold both working people and boarders.

We purpose using its assembly rooms, club rooms, and recreation accommodations seven days a week. And here we trust that many who have no homes and few friends may find that the Church's duty is not to provide for spiritual wants alone, but that she brings a message of cheer and good-will to all departments of human life.

On the evening of January 2, 1886, at about seven o'clock, our church edifice was discovered to be on fire. The fire alarm immediately brought numerous engines to the rescue, but the flames spread rapidly, and in a few moments utterly consumed the entire chancel with its beautiful marble altar and reredos, and all its appointments, destroyed the organ and ruined the entire roof of the church, and several of the most costly memorial windows, and necessitated entire new fixtures and decorations throughout the church. The insurance companies—the Royal Ins. Co. and the People's—were prompt and liberal in their award of damages, sufficient to cover the entire losses, with the exception of $1,000 on the organ. After the consecration of the renewed Church by Assistant Bishop Potter, it is more beautiful than ever for the service due unto the Blessed Trinity.

During the past year several great improvements have been made in the interior of the Church. At Easter the simple modern altar cross was replaced by a brass memorial cross, in memory of a dear child of God. Handsome black walnut stalls and prayer desks, given by several members of the Parish and furnished by Lamb, have been set in their places. The old organ has been removed from the gallery at the west end, and a larger and far better one has been placed in the Transept close to the Chancel. The whole Church has been carpeted anew. The larger part of these alterations and improvements has been paid for by the Ladies' Association of the Parish, which raised $700 towards the object, as stated in last report, and which has added since more than a thousand more. Thanks to an energetic committee and the liberality of several parishioners, the work was all finished in time, and also paid for, so that when the Church was reopened every bill was settled.

The year covered by the foregoing Report, has been in many respects the most prosperous in the annals of the Parish. All interests, temporal and spiritual, have been quietly maintained, and under the Divine favor, have borne fruit. Liberal giving and personal devotion to good works have been notable. The Sunday-school connected with St. Thomas' Chapel, and the Charities which center in St. Thomas' House, deserve special mention, as also the benevolent and Missionary work carried on by the ladies of the Parish Church. The contributions to the Fresh Air Fund have been large in amount, and faithfully dispensed.

Appended is the Report of the Minister in Charge of St. Thomas' Chapel.

"The Boy's League" of St. Thomas' Chapel, has been organized during the past year by an association composed of young men connected with the Parish Church. The object of the League is to afford instruction, recreation, and rational amusement to the large number of youth residing in the neighborhood of the Chapel. Throughout the past winter, the spacious upper hall of St. Thomas' House has been filled, on Monday evenings, with a well-behaved and interested gathering of intelligent boys, who have gladly availed themselves of the opportunity thus generously afforded for spending a pleasant evening, uniting instruction, amusement, and improvement in good manners and gentlemanly deportment. Great credit is due to the young men in charge for their zeal and practical efforts in carrying out the various objects contemplated through this organization.

This Report embraces the period of the present Rector's work, seven months. The Rectorship had been vacant, by the death of the Rector, for nearly a year. The Register was lost, and hence the difficulty of making an accurate report of the true strength and condition of the Parish. A new Family and Communicant List had to be made without any reference to the past.

Daily Morning and Evening Prayer has been maintained in the Church since Feb. 1st, with success that is fair and encouraging.

A most interesting and helpful Parochial Mission was held for ten days during the winter. The results may be briefly stated as an elevation in the spiritual and moral tone; an increased liberality; a larger and more regular attendance upon public worship; an increase of earnestness and devotion in the various branches of Church Work in the Parish.

In connection with the work at Kent Cliffs during the winter of 1885-6, the Missionary did Priest's duty as called upon at Brewster and Patterson, at which points the Rector was in Deacon's Orders. Also in Sept., 1885, and during June, July and August, 1886, he officiated on Sunday mornings at the Church of the Holy Communion, Lake Mahopac (the Sunday evening service being at Kent Cliffs). Holy Communion here, as at Kent Cliffs, celebrated once a month. The Church at Mahopac provides almost exclusively for the summer visitors at the Lake, and is closed at the end of the hotel season. The offertory of the four months specified, amounted to $261.29. Of this amount, a special collection, $54.01, was appropriated to the care of the Church property. Of the remainder, $15 goes to the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, $10 each to the Episcopal Fund and the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, $129 goes to pay expenses of organist and sexton, both at Mahopac and Kent Cliffs, leaving $43.28 to defray in part traveling expenses of the Missionary.

By the most kind gifts from friends to our Mission, residing in New York, Albany and other places, much suffering has been relieved. Through no fault of their own, the condition of many of the mountain people, who depend largely on the making of baskets for support, had become, the past winter, most deplorable. Over one hundred families received donations of provisions and clothing. Children were clothed and sent to school, and remunerative employment was furnished to a considerable number of persons.

Owing to the large number unable to obtain admission to the Chapel, the Confirmation Service was held in the open air. The Church building, partly erected, silently pleads for the means to complete it.

The services at St. Mary's have been somewhat interrupted during the past year by repairs that were required on the building and decorations that have been made in beautifying the Church. The expense of these improvements was met by Mrs. Jane C. Mead, daughter of the Rev. Wm. Creighton, D.D. The Church is now in good repair, and, with all its trusts, in the hands of the Diocese. It only awaits the Bishop's appointment to be consecrated.

Depletions, by death and removal, have been going on ever since the present Rector took charge of St. Mary's. They have been going on for many years, until now there is not a permanent resident in the vicinity of Beechwood that can do much to sustain the services, or care for the affairs of the Church.

During the past few months the Rector has been giving much of his attention to the laborers at work upon the aqueduct. He has distributed many tracts in different languages, and some Italian Prayer-Books, among them.

The new stone Church, built as a memorial of Mrs. Henrietta Constable, by her husband, Jas. M. Constable, and her three children—Frederick A. Constable, Mrs. Harriette M. Arnold, and Mrs. Amy H. Weatherbee—was consecrated by the Assistant Bishop of the Diocese on Thursday before last Whitsun-Day, June 10th. The Rev. C. E. Swope, D.D., of Trinity Parish, New York, preached the sermon. Closing services were held in the old Church on Easter Day and on Tuesday in Easter week. Soon afterwards the building was dismantled and taken to pieces. The rectory and parish building are approaching completion. The latter contains a Chapel, with working rooms and other conveniences. Of the amount necessary for the erection of these buildings, the Parish has given about one-fourth, the Constable family contributing the remainder and furnishing them throughout. With joy and gratitude, we may reverently say of what has been so generously done for us, "Old things are passed away; behold all things are become new."

Within the last few months an addition of some 28 feet has been made to the west end of the Church edifice.

The Chancel Platform has been brought forward a few inches, and a doorway has been cut from the main building into the Vestry Room. The original South Porch has been altered from a tower in an unfinished condition to an entrance in Gothic form, and the floor of the Church has been furnished almost throughout with new carpet. The windows introduced have been mainly memorial, and the structure is lighted by gas fixtures in the form of bands of polished brass, resting on the corbels of the several pillars.

The interior, which now measures 96½ feet in length, and (except in the Chancel), 38 feet in width, provides 100 pews (of which 40 are additional), and these will accommodate 450 people.

The entire cost of enlargement will be about $7,000.

NOTE.—In some instances, contributions sent to the Treasurer immediately after the Convention of 1885, but before the preparation of the Table for 1885-6, being included in that year's Table, are not repeated in the Table which is above. The fact of the contribution will, in such case, appear by reference to such items in the Parochial Report of this Journal in 1886. In this Table appear some contributions handed to the Treasurers since their official Reports to the Convention. This will account for any seeming discrepancy in a few instances between this Table and Parochial Reports and Reports of the Treasurers.
